Local Gossip

The Record sends out eight pages today. If business continues to increase, we will have to enlarge the paper permanently.

Quite a number of citizens are planting their gardens, but the Record would suggest that they wait until after the next snow falls.

The Section men have sowed all of that portion of ground on opposite side of tract from the depot, which is a very great improvement. Lancaster now has the prettiest depot in Central Kentucky.

The Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias drills every Wednesday night and the attendance is good. They have been drilling on the public Square lately and show marked improvement under command of Capt. W. O. Dunlap.

Remember the entertainment at the court house on the evening of the 16th. It is given under the auspices of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, and is highly recommended. The house will be clean and comfortable, so go and spend an evening of enjoyment and also help the lodge boys.

Each of Lancaster's colored settlements, "Battle Row," Duncantown and "Middlesboro," have had a fire within the past two weeks, and each time the property of the colored people was saved. They are now happier than ever that they voted for the water in the hot election. Lancaster promoters had to win to get the improvement.

The lid was on good and strong Sunday, everything being closed but the churches, and these were only open for a few hours. The closing of business houses is a good move, its all very true but the closing of the meat shops, and ice depots is carrying the thing just a little too far. It is impossible to keep meats over night in a private residence, while the attempt to keep ice is entirely out of the question. Enforce the law, gentlemen, see that Sunday is properly observed, but don't run the thing into the ground.

The large weather vane, which has done duty on the cupola of the Court House for so many years, was blown down a few days ago. As nearly all the work in this structure is more or less decayed there is danger of a strong wind blowing away the whole thing, and the determination of the Fiscal Court to have it repaired is a wise move, indeed. Should some piece of lumber fall and injure a person, it would cost the County enough to put up an entirely new building. Remember the old saying about a stitch in time.

Susan Gibbs, well known as "Black Suse," died Sunday of consumption.

The money for the jurors, who served last court is ready for payment. F. S. Hughes.

Some Good Music Sunday.

All the Churches are preparing special musical programs for Easter Services Sunday morning. The program at the Christian Church will be exceptionally good.

Better Move Out.

An Iowa editor got off this one the other day: "The sorriest man on earth is the fellow who will sit around and cuss his town. If I lived astride of the north pole I would call it home and be ready to boost it up. If I could not say anything nice about it I would say my ice bill didn't come high. I would not stay in a town I had to cuss—not while the world is as big as it now is."

A Warning.

The Record is requested to warn people against riding on the horse wagon when the latter is being taken to a fire. The wagon is so heavy that it is with the greatest difficulty it is drawn, and with five or six men perched on the top thereof it is almost impossible to make any speed. It is also very dangerous and should be stopped.

Easter Exchange.

The W. C. T. U. will have an exchange at the post office on Saturday before Easter, and will have for sale at low prices all kinds of cakes, salads, bread, pies, in fact many articles you can not buy elsewhere. The exchange will be open at ten o'clock A. M. and remain open all day, so come early and get first choice.

The Lid On.

The City Council had the lid on good and strong Sunday, the barber shops, stores, in fact everything but the Churches being locked, barred, and bolted, even the cigar stands refused to sell anything and corn cob pipes had to be restored to. Most of the merchants are in favor of the Sunday closing, as it is a great nuisance for them to have to remain at their places of business, with one eye open, so to speak, when they should be enjoying the day's rest. The barbers are very glad the law is being enforced. While there is some kicking, yet the majority of the people want the lid on, and we are satisfied much good will result if the law is carried out to the letter.

A Wise Move.

The Fiscal Court has decided to take the sense of the voters on the question of issuing bonds to raise funds with which to make the needed improvements in the Court House. It is not generally known to the Public, but the Court House is in a very dilapidated condition, and a small amount of money spent now in improving and repairing the building will save many dollars later on. The foundation and the walls are the best in Central Kentucky and the house can be made one of the most convenient and comfortable at very little cost. The Record is very glad the Court has seen proper to do this, and the action speaks well for the judgment thereof.

A Fair Count.

In an interview at Washington Senator James B. McCreary says he is confident of re-election, whether Gov. Beckham is a candidate against him or not. "With fair count," said he, "I am sure I will be returned to the Senate." The inference to be drawn from this is that the State machine may endeavor by improper methods to defeat him. Speaking of the Senatorial aspirations of Gov. Beckham he said: "I have received letters lately from every part of Kentucky, and I am satisfied that the Democrats of my state will elect me for a second term. I have already announced to my friends that I shall be a candidate for one reason that almost without exception Democratic Senators have been given two terms, and often three terms in our State. I have always tried to be a faithful and efficient officer whenever the people of Kentucky have honored me with an office. I am therefore sure to be re-elected with a fair count."

8th District Publishers.

The Eighth District Publishers League met in Danville Saturday and nearly every newspaper man in the district was present. Many matters of great importance to the newspaper craft were discussed and the meeting was both pleasant and profitable. This League was organized last summer and has resulted in many improvements and benefits for the paper which could never have been brought about in any other way. The Danville Newspaper men were untiring in their efforts to entertain their visiting brothers, and certainly succeeded in making the visit enjoyable. By the way, no town in the State is enjoying a greater or more steady growth than is our hustling neighbor, Danville.

New buildings are going up every where, and we are told that it is almost impossible to rent a dwelling house in the city. The business houses are right up to the minute in every way, and carry a nice line of goods as can be found out side of Louisville or Cincinnati. The citizens are progressive and are out for every thing that will benefit and bring business to their town.

There will be a call conference at the Baptist Church in Lancaster next Tuesday morning at 10:30 A. M. Preaching at 11:30 and also at 7:15 P. M.

Rue & Currey, real estate agents of Harrodsburg, sold for Mr. W. P. McGee his 30 acres on Cornsville pike to Henry Gaubert, of Perryville, for $1,850 cash. Also sold for Sarah E. Tewmeyer her house and lot on pike three miles from Harrodsburg for $1,000.

Dr. Jno A. Snowden, who moved from Clark county to Kirksville about two years ago, has bought of R. L. Jennings the Dr. Nichols property at Paint Lick and is now a citizen of that thriving city. The dwelling has been remodeled and put in first-class repair.

For County Clerk.

Mr. Frank Pierce authorizes The Record to announce him as a candidate for the office of county clerk, subject to the action of the democratic party. He has always been a hard worker for his party, is well qualified and would make a good official.

Locates in Lancaster.

Dr. J. G. B. Selver, of Richmond, has located in Lancaster and opened an office at the residence of Mrs. Singleton on Lexington street. Dr. Selver is one of the best physicians in Central Kentucky and comes highly recommended as a physician and gentleman, and The Record extends him warm welcome into our little city.

For the Colored School.

His Royal Highness, Prince Herriman, including his Eminence Duke Berryman, will appear at the Lancaster Colored Baptist Church April 16th, and at the Court House April 17th. This entertainment is for the benefit of the Lancaster Colored Public School, and comes highly recommended, Admission 15c and 25c. A portion of the house will be reserved for the white people who are cordially invited to attend and assist the school.

They Kill The Town.

The Harrodsburg Herald drives center in the following:—The inordinate love of the dollar too often makes men unpatriotic and disloyal to the town and community in which they live. To save a little they will send away from home for supplies, refuse a dollar toward public improvements in their own town, belittle and degrade home enterprise and yet be the first to advance the price of their property as a result of the patient self-sacrificing work of others. Loyalty to your town is just as commendable a type of patriotism as one can find, and no matter how much your patriotism boils over on the Fourth of July in a general way, if you are disloyal in little things to your town you are a poor citizen of the republic. You are like him who makes long prayers in the church and jaws his wife and neglects his children at home.

Reliable Help.

The printing offices all over the country are replacing male help for girls, nearly every office has from one to four girls at the cases in the places formerly occupied by boys and men. This is being done for the reason that it is almost impossible to get male help you can depend upon, and the further fact that it is so much more pleasant to have the women in the office. The work is light, much easier than sewing and far more pleasant than clerking. At the Danville News office Saturday, we saw three girls (pretty ones, too, by the way) at the cases attending to the type-setting, and the business was running along more rapidly, with less confusion and far more pleasantly than if so many beer-soaked cigarette fiends were in the places talking, killing time and keeping the air foul with oaths. The girl in the printing office is a gem, and in a short time the men will be forced to learn other trades.

BRYANTSVILLE

Misses Mattie Mae and Lillian Leavelle are in Lexington for a short visit.

Mrs. Sallie B. Welsh is in Richmond with her daughter Mrs. Sam Dethierage. Miss Alice Dunn, of Danville, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Atha Dunn.

Miss Mayme Ballard is expected home this week after a short visit to Indiana.

The regular services will be held at the Methodist church Sunday morning and night.

Mr. Letcher Saunders and family, of Nicholasville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. Glass.

Mr. Parker a splendid artist who has been here for some time moved his car to your city on Tuesday last.

Messrs. Horace and Guy Easley who are attending school at Berea are expected home to spend Easter.

Mr. Geiger and wife, of Lancaster and Mr. Cotton and wife, of Danville, were guests of Mr. Jas. Burnside last week.

Mr. Fayette Brooks, of Lexington, is visiting relatives here and says work will begin on our new pike as soon as the weather permits.

Dr. Durnam and Mr. Walker Burnside have purchased of Mr. A. T. Scott his stock of drugs and moved them to the store room of Mullins and Noe and opened up a new complete drug store.

Mr. Wesley Farles visited his daughter Miss Kate, who is attending school in Harrodsburg, Sunday.

Next Sunday will be Easter, or the anniversary of the resurrection of our Savior. The formal institution of this festival dates back to A. D. 68, and is observed by all Christendom as the most sacred and hallowed event that has been observed and celebrated since time was defined as a speck in limitless eternity. The infinite importance of the rising of Jesus, from the dead, is manifested in the fact that the day superseded the keeping of Saturday as a day of rest, and every first day of the week became a Resurrection Festival. The special observance, at this season, is eminently appropriate as all nature is rising from the dead, since the frozen embrace of winter and the shroud of snow has been removed by the warmth of the rays of the great orb of day which is analogous to the soul-inspiring grace of our Lord, and the life-giving love of Jehovah. We see God in nature as in revelation: in the stars, and in the verdant robe of nature, which springs from the invisible germ of the seed, as in the resurrected body springing from the intangible and invisible germ of spiritual existence, which resides in the body, as the germ in the grain. The analogy is beautiful and complete, and the resurrection of the body is no more a miracle than the growth of corn from the seed which rots in the soil before the growth begins. The coming of Easter should strengthen our faith, renew our hopes, and induce us to prepare our souls for the association of angels—a necessary condition to the enjoyment of eternal happiness. A soul steeped in sin could not enjoy Heaven even if it were permitted to enter there. The spirit must gravitate towards God as the pebble is drawn to the earth, and there must be a fitness or likeness in kind in both cases. Let us profit by this event and as we partake of the emblems which represent the body of our Savior let us realize the fact that the simplicity of the loaf and the cup manifests divinity, for, had it been to commemorate a human hero, the chiseled marble would have been raised toward the stars. Let us subordinate every event to this—the one upon which rests our permanent and eternal happiness. The rise and fall of empires, the destruction of mighty armies, the birth and death of earthly potentates should all sink into insignificance when compared with the event, which alone can comfort the soul here, and insure permanent happiness hereafter.

In this issue of The Record will be found the formal announcement of Judge John W. Hughes, of Mercer, for Congress, to succeed Hon. Geo. G. Gilbert. Judge Hughes is one of the best-known Democrats in Kentucky, having been on the stump in every battle, doing all he could for his party. He is a farmer, and a very successful one, and is one of the best-posted men in this section. He is in every way qualified for the place, and his friends say he is in the race to win. The Harrodsburg Democrat says:—John W. Hughes has the qualifications, the capacity and the temperament to make a worthy representative of the Eighth district. He has been for twenty years one of the most loyal and devoted fighting Democrats in the district. His means, his time and his talents have always been freely given to the party's cause. On the stump, in the council and at polls he has worked faithfully for party victory. It is entirely within the bounds of truth to say that Judge Hughes has traveled more miles and made more speeches for the party's nominees than any one man in the district. If loyalty and long service have any call to preferment he has earned and deserves promotion.

It is very gratifying to the many friends of Maj. E. W. Lillard, of Danville, to know that he has a good chance of being appointed adjutant general of the State troops. This is a place which should be filled by a man who has had experience in military matters. A figure head has no business with this office, as matters may arise at any time requiring the active service of the State Guard, and to place the same on duty under an inexperienced commander would be a great piece of foolishness. Maj. Lillard has been connected with the service for many years, is a man of good judgement, and should by all means be given charge of the troops.

The distinction given to a man stealing a large sum from a bank for instance by calling him a misappropriator, of funds, and dubbing the culprit who steals a few dollars a thief is unjust. The former ought to be called a thief, and the latter be given a less ignominious name. Embezzler the big thief is sometime called, or a defaulter. Would not the common title, applied to the big thief, serve somewhat to rob his stealings of the glamour surrounding the high sounding term?

Dr. Buckley, of the Methodist church, objects to the requirement in the new order of worship that persons should kneel at once after taking their places in church. He says this requirement was adopted out of deference to the custom of the Methodist Episcopal church. The doctor's objection is strongly made out of deference to those who wear easy gowns and newly-cropped trousers.

Quite a number of the newspapers in the state have been making extensive improvements in the way of new dresses of type, enlarged forms, etc. This sign of prosperity upon the part of some of the boys is very gratifying to their brother editors. The latest paper to don a new dress is the Carlisle Mercury, Green Keller's good publication.

Alexander Dowie, who bilked many people on the gag that he was "Elijah II," has incurred the displeasure of his followers and kicked out of his "Heaven," established near Chicago. Dowie made good money out of the fake, and now those who were bilked will have to look about for some other fake upon which to waste their time and means.

Charley Cruise, editor of the Kentucky Elk, hints that editor Vernon Richardson, of the Danville News, is figuring on getting married. Rich denies the report. The Record will say this much—that if any girl is thinking of taking a boy to raise, she could not possibly do better than to adopt the bustling, clever Danville lad.

At Ekron, Ky., the other night, swell society held a "measuring party," a prize being given to the woman with the largest foot, the man with the longest nose, etc. Had a prize been offered for the woman with the longest tongue, the judge would have had a proposition, sure enough.

Several laws for the betterment of the State Guard were enacted by the recent session of the legislature. This was a wise step. While the organization is rather expensive yet it is like a pistol, or a full-dress suit—always in the way until needed, but must be forth coming when needed.

An Indiana woman is suing her father-in-law for alienating her husband's affections. The defendant's son won his bride by beating out his rival for her hand in a foot race. This is not the first case of the father getting into trouble by reason of a son's rapid pace.

With seventeen of the best editors in the eighth congressional district lined up at Danville Saturday, it surely did look like much good will be accomplished by the recently organized league. This means not only better things for the paper man, but better papers for the subscribers.

Over 11,000 immigrants landed in New York one day last week. If this thing keeps up much longer, we Americans will be forced to take "a cot in the hall" in order to accommodate the visitors. The time for putting up the bars arrived some time ago.

Some professor, with an unpronounceable name, predicts that the time will come when there will not be water enough remaining on this globe to support human life. That sounds bad, but it will not bother we Presbyterians and Kentuckians very much.

Because of the mild winter, some wise ones are predicting more than an abundance of mosquitoes this season. As the crop of cold headed men is unusually large, and the open-work stocking will be in style, there is no danger of the little pests starving to death.

Ed Shinnick, the big hearted editor of the Shelbyville Record, says hence forth campaign managers who take large sums from life insurance companies, will know enough to acknowledge their receipt by telephone and not by letter.

The good county of Shelby is out of debt and has ten thousand dollars in her inside pocket. We presume she now feels like the small boy with a nickel in a candy store—wants to buy something but don't know what to select.

The construction of Interurban lines leading hither from the various points of the compass is lagging, seemingly without cause. Nothing will help Kentucky more than such lines tapping the rich fields all about us.

The Stanford Journal gives the "straight tip" that Judge M. C. Sauley will not make the race for Congress.

The spring poet and the fish har will soon be in their glory. What a pity they arrive at the same time.

An organ grinder showed up in Danville the other day, and the Advocate raised the cry of "Spring."

Herschel Wingo, of Texas. The wedding will take place in the early summer. No arrangements for the wedding have been yet made.

Mr O T Wallace and son, Will, have returned from a visit in Florida much improved in health.

The most obliging, polite and prompt telephone operator in Central Kentucky is Miss Lizzie Leigh who has charge of the switchboards in the local exchange. If the public only knew one tenth of the trouble and annoyance telephone operators are forced to undergo, a lot of allowance would be made for them. The local company is to be congratulated upon securing the present operator.

Richmond Climax:—Miss Mary E Lear, of Paint Lick, who is entered in the Courier Journal "Trip to Europe" contest, was here several days last week. Miss Lear has a large number of friends in Richmond and Madison county who are thoroughly interested in her candidacy, and all are watching with much interest the vote of the Sixteenth District, in which so far, has been the most exciting contest.

Miss Eliza Rucker visited friends in Lancaster Friday.

Mr and Mrs Jack Adams of Lancaster visited here Sunday.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce JOHN W HUGHES, of Mercer county, as a candidate to represent the Eighth Congressional District of Kentucky in Congress, to succeed Hon G G Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

That "Wise Old City"

Montgomery, Ala., was delighted with the performance of the Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quarettette on February 16th '97, and from the collection of testimonials from the most excellent of people we clip the following from that sterling gentleman and scholar, Rev Dr W Dudley Pows, Rector of St John's Chapel: "Your entertainment was very satisfactory to all who saw it, and has received warm compliments from all to whom I have spoken. I regard it as a refined, artistic and pleasant entertainment. To me your company gave exceptional pleasure, and I shall always be glad to give any word of commendation that may be of service to you." The best people are always the best pleased with the Schubert's. Your last chance to hear them here is at the Court House on April 19 1906.

Watch For Him.

Papers in Central Kentucky tell of a new and very clever swindle that is being operated by a man who is going about the country representing himself as an expert repairer of sewing machines. Housewives in Lancaster and vicinity are hereby warned to be on the lookout. He asks to examine the machine, and while doing so takes out good pieces and inserts broken parts and calls the ladies attention to it; then slyly replaces the good piece he has removed and charges exorbitant prices for his work. He is one of the smoothest swindlers that ever came down the pike.

Caught Cold While Hunting a Burglar.

Mr Wm. Thos. Lanorgan, provincial Constable at Chaplain, Ontario, says "I caught a severe cold while hunting a burglar in the forest swamp last fall. Hearing of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I tried it, and after using two bottles, I was completely cured." This remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold in less time than by any other treatment and is a favorite wherever its superior excellence has become known. For sale by R E McRoberts the reliable druggist at Lancaster.

FLATWOOD

Mr Green Morgan bought 4 hogs from Jim Cooley at 54 cts per lb.

W H Furr bought one load of corn from Sylvanus Ward at $2.

J C Leavel, of N. Y., bought a house and lot containing six and a half acres from W H Furr for $39.00.

Mr J D Ward, of Bileys Switch has been visiting his children, Mrs Abbey Elam and Sylvanus Ward for the past week.

The Death Angel visited the home of Squire R L Parsons on Sunday the 21st day of April, claiming his own their oldest daughter, Mrs Lettie Hammonds. She leaves a husband and an infant child to feel the loss of wife and mother besides father, mother, brothers and sisters as well as a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of la grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr J S Eggleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a double dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon knocked out the grip." Sold by R E McRoberts the reliable druggist at Lancaster.

In Memory.

"Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for such is the Kingdom of Heaven." On Saturday night Mar. 31st the angel of death threw its shadowy wings over the home of Mr and Mrs Jake White and called their darling little baby, John Harlan White to leave this earthly abode of gloom and sorrow and enter the realms of perfect bliss. This little darling was only loaned to Mama and Papa three short months, just long enough to fulfill the mission God intended. They loved this precious gift, but God always takes from his flower bed the purest and sweetest flower, which was "budded on earth to bloom in Heaven". Then why weep for him for he waits at the portals of Heaven with "becoming hands" to greet the coming of Mama, Papa and little sister. You can only wonder at the Providences and mysteries of God, but we believe you bow in humble submission to "Him who doeth all things well."

"Auntie."

Human Blood Marks.

A tale horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr Kings' New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well every since." It cures Hemorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by R E McRoberts, Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
